

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, excellence in education is dependent on schools that are safe and free of violence, weapons, and drugs; and

WHEREAS, the safety and well-being of many students, teachers, and school staff are unnecessarily jeopardized by crime and violence, such as substance abuse, gangs, bullying, poor discipline, vandalism, and absenteeism; and

WHEREAS, America's Safe Schools Week calls attention to the importance of working together to ensure that our schools are safe, secure, peaceful places for learning, teaching, and working – free of drugs, alcohol, weapons, and fear.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 16 – 22, 2005, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to join together to keep our schools free of crime and violence, to improve discipline, and to increase student attendance.
